

Maine Equal Pay Law

(Title 26, § 628, Chapter 7)

Maine Law requires that employees be paid the same wages as employees of the opposite sex for work that is of a comparable nature in skill, effort and responsibility.

This poster is provided at no cost by the Maine Department of Labor and may be copied.

Are you being paid less than an employee of the opposite sex for performing comparable work?

If so, ask yourself the following questions.

1. Does the other employee's job have comparable requirements relating to skill, effort, and responsibility?
2. Does the other employee have similar training, education or experience relating to the jobs performed?
3. Does your employer prohibit you from talking about your wages with your coworkers?

If you answer "yes" to any of these questions, you may want to file an Equal Pay Complaint. The Maine Department of Labor has a printable complaint form which you may access online at: https://www.maine.gov/labor/labor_laws/publications/epcomplaintform.pdf
