

Attention Allegheny County Employers

We would like to make you aware that there are other requirements your company is subject to in addition to posting your Allegheny County poster in a conspicuous location.

- In addition to the “Paid Sick Leave” notice on the enclosed poster, employers with 26 or more employees must provide a written copy of the notice to employees who qualify for paid sick time. The amount of sick time earned, that retaliation is prohibited, and other rights under Section 2406 A of the Ordinance must also be included in writing.

- All employers are also required by law to post state and federal labor law posters, and Poster Compliance Center publishes state and federal posters in multiple formats. If you need these posters, please go to www.postercompliance.com/labor-law-posters/pennsylvania/ to order, or call us at 800-322-3636.

Depending on a company’s industry, type of commerce, sector, location, or workforce, additional specialized notices may be required by federal, state, or local governments or agencies. Examples could include notices for federal contractors, notices that must be posted for the public or job applicants (in addition to those posted for employees), a labor law notice required in another language for employees who do not speak English, public sector notices, signage that must be posted at a specific location in your business such as the entrance, or a notice that can only be obtained through an insurance company.
