

Attention San Carlos Employers

We would like to make you aware that there are other requirements your company is subject to in addition to posting your San Carlos poster in a conspicuous location.

- All employers are also required by law to post state and federal labor law posters, and Poster Compliance Center publishes state and federal posters in multiple formats. If you need these posters, please go to www.postercompliance.com/labor-law-posters/california/ to order, or call us at 800-322-3636.
- In addition to hanging the San Carlos poster in a conspicuous location, employers must also provide a written copy of their name, address, and phone number at the time of hire.

For more information about this written requirement and other details of the minimum wage, go to <https://www.cityofsancarlos.org/business/minimum-wage> or call 650-802-4212.

Depending on a company's industry, type of commerce, sector, location, or workforce, additional specialized notices may be required by federal, state, or local governments or agencies. Examples could include notices for federal contractors, notices that must be posted for the public or job applicants (in addition to those posted for employees), a labor law notice required in another language for employees who do not speak English, public sector notices, signage that must be posted at a specific location in your business such as the entrance, or a notice that can only be obtained through an insurance company.
