Statement of Employee Rights

You may qualify for Paid Family and Medical Leave

As of Jan. 1, 2020, Washington employees who have worked 820 hours or more in the qualifying period and experience(d) a qualifying event have access to Paid Family and Medical Leave.

Employees who have missed work due to family or medical reasons may be eligible for paid family or medical leave for the following qualifications:

- Care for and bond with a child younger than 18 following birth or placement
- Care for yourself or a family member experiencing a serious health condition
- Certain military-connected events.

Paid Family and Medical Leave requires that you give your employer(s) written notice at least 30 days in advance of when you plan to take leave. However, if the reason you need leave was not foreseeable, you may notify your employer(s) as soon as possible.

The Paid Family and Medical Leave Benefit Guide provides information on how to apply for benefits and submit weekly claims. It also explains your rights and responsibilities under the law. Download the guide at www.paidleave.wa.gov/benefit-guide.

Important information for when you apply

Employee name: _____ Date: _____

Employer UBI #: _____ This employer offers supplemental benefits: Y _____ N _____

Note: Except during the waiting week, employees cannot use employer provided paid time off at the same time as Paid Family and Medical Leave, unless the employer chooses to offer a "supplemental benefit." Supplemental benefits can be used along with Paid Family and Medical Leave to provide additional pay while an employee receives partial wage replacement through Paid Leave benefits. Employees may accept or reject supplemental benefit payments.
